Open Rehearsals

Students get engaged with the rehearsal process by acting as detectives to make close-up observations, and help coach the quartet to have a successful rehearsal.

Interactive Performances

The quartet designs each performance for the particular audience, creating relevance, and finding ways for audience members to become a part of the music-making.

Workshops

Cardamom Quartet members work with string players at all levels. Students learn how a quartet makes decisions together by learning these skills as they play and improvise together.
